

Dog Is My CoPilot, Inc.

Source Partner Agreement

At Dog Is My CoPilot (DIMC), we adhere to animal transport best practice standards to ensure the safety of the animals, the pilot, and the people on the ground. As a Partner, you must adhere to these standards as well. Please read the requirements, fill in the information required, and return this to Kara@DogCopilot.org.

I attest to the following:

Our community has a high euthanasia rate.

Our organization is 501(c) 3 approved.

Our organization is in good standing with the community we serve, the animal rescue community, and government agencies.

I agree that the animals transported by DIMC and the crates in which they travel will become the property of the Destination Organization when they board the plane. At no time does DIMC take ownership of the animals or crates.

I understand that the flying schedule is weather dependent, and schedule changes may need to be made for safety reasons.

I understand that DIMC flies to the following 11 states: MT, WY, CO, NM, AZ, NV, CA, UT, OR, ID, WA

On transport day, I agree to the following:

Each animal will be in a crate.

Each crate will be labeled with the destination airport and destination organization/person. Each label will be color-coded, each color representing a different airport.

Each crate will be clean, safe and secure for animal transport.

Each animal will have a health certificate signed by a veterinarian, stating that the animal is healthy for transport.

The representative from our organization who is on the ground

- Will have a cell phone with text ability and be constantly available for updates.
- Will arrive to the airport at least 30 minutes prior to the estimated departure time.
- Will provide the pilot with two folders containing health certificates for each animal, one for the pilot, and one for the destination organization.

- Will send transport photos and video to DIMC

We try to accommodate our partners' needs whenever possible. Please answer the following questions to help us coordinate the best travel plans.
