Our lifesaving animal transport flights are supported by significant funding from Petco Love. As a strategic partner, Dog Is My CoPilot encourages you to become a Petco Love partner organization by visiting petcolove.org/partner. Source partners will be required to complete this step going forward AND will also qualify for priority funding with the completion of their Annual Data Reports for 2018, 2019, and 2020. Have questions about this process? Reach out to Petco Love at Partners@PetcoLove.org to learn more about priority funding possibilities and other unique opportunities.
