Dog Is My CoPilot Fact Sheet

We transport animals from shelters in California, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas where adoptable pets are at the highest risk for euthanasia and fly them to adoption partners where each one has the opportunity to find a loving forever home.

Quick Facts

- We transport homeless pets at risk for euthanasia to ensure they have a chance to find loving families.
- We provide our services at no cost to the shelters and adoption centers we partner with.
- Dog Is My CoPilot, Inc is a 501 (c)3 Non-Profit Organization.

About

Founded in 2012, Dog Is My CoPilot transports at-risk animals from overcrowded shelters to adoption centers in other geographic regions where loving families are waiting. Powered by volunteer pilots, Dog Is My CoPilot flies 5,000 dogs and cats every year to adoption centers that find each pet a new home. The shelters where the animals come from are underserved, overpopulated, and often forgotten; these are the organizations we are determined to help!

In the US, over 1 million animals are euthanized every year in shelters which has increased the demand for transportation services. To help reduce euthanasia rates of dogs and cats in shelters, we purchased a second airplane in 2022 to increase our life saving capacity.

- Since 2012, we have saved more than 25,000 dogs and cats.
- We fly at-risk but highly adoptable pets from overcrowded shelters to places with open kennels and waiting adopters.
- We operate two Cessna Grand Caravans that can fit upwards of 100 animals per flight. The flights are operated by our team of volunteer pilots and our rescue flights are at no-cost to our partner organizations.
- We work collaboratively with over 150 city shelters, local animal welfare organizations and individuals across the nation to coordinate transports.
- We are dependent on support from donors and sponsors. We do not receive state or federal funding. Donated funds go straight to work saving lives around the country!
